Defending our Faith with the Truth

Why Catholics Worship with Bread and Wine

Question: “Why do Catholics use bread and wine as part of your worship service?”

Answer: “There’s an answer for that in the Bible, my friend! First let me ask you a question. Did you know that Our Lord Jesus Himself told us to do so the night before He died?

“In Luke 22:19 we read: ‘And having taken the chalice, He gave thanks, and said: Take, and divide it among you... And taking bread, He gave thanks, and broke; and gave to them, saying: This is my body, which is given for you. Do this for a commemoration of me. In like manner the chalice also, after He had supped, saying: This is the chalice, the new testament in my blood, which shall be shed for you.’

Did you know that this action, involving bread and a chalice of wine, was the one thing that Our Lord asked us to do in memory of Him, on the very night before He died for us?

“But that’s not all. In Numbers 28:13-14, we hear the commandment of God that with “every lamb” offered there is to be offered “in sacrifice” an offering of flour (bread), and “libations of wine that are to be poured out for every victim.” Our Lord is the “lamb of God” (John 1:29), therefore to fulfill the law He would indeed have offered in sacrifice bread and wine along with Himself, the Lamb of God. However, the bread and wine are sacrificed, changed, when they are completely transformed to become His Body and Blood. How do we know the bread and wine change to become His actual Body and Blood? Because He said so! “This IS my Body... (Luke 22:19) This IS my Blood...” (Matthew 26:28, Mark 14:24), and the Lord has said that ‘whatsoever word I shall speak, it shall come to pass’ (Ezekiel 12:25).

By God’s command, bread and wine were offered together...

“Our Lord even explained what this ‘bread’ actually is in John 6:52: ‘The bread that I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.’

“You may object that bread and wine were used in the Old Testament, but now we are in the New Testament. However the use of bread and wine in the worship of God in the New Testament is critical! By God’s command, bread and wine were offered together, and we know that the offering of wine is critical to the New Testament because according to St. Paul and Our Lord, the chalice of wine IS the New Testament in His Blood! ‘This chalice is the new testament in my blood’ (1 Corinthians 11:25). ‘This is the chalice, the new testament in my blood’ (Luke 22:20).

“According to the Bible, then, since Christ says that the chalice of wine which becomes ‘My Blood’ is ‘the new testament in My Blood’, you can’t have the new testament worship apart from offering the chalice of wine, which becomes His Blood! And because Christ is alive, where His Blood is, His Body is also, and so in the New Testament He gives His flesh along with His Blood; flesh which has the appearance of bread (*the bread that I will give is my flesh...).

“This is why we worship
