APOLOGETICS CORNER

Defending our Faith with the Truth

By Father Dennis M. Gordon, FSSP

The Bible Records the Established Hierarchy of the Church

Question: “At my church we have deacons and pastors, but where do you Catholics come up with the idea of a distinction between bishops, priests and deacons? Aren’t you just creating a hierarchy from these terms out of thin air to justify some governing system that you came up with?”

Answer: “I’ll bet you can’t guess where the Catholic Church got the distinction of hierarchical functions between ‘bishops’, ‘priests’ and ‘deacons’...you got it; it’s from the Bible!!! Let’s look in one book of the Bible (one letter of St. Paul) to show that the inspired author of this book makes this distinction among bishops, priests and deacons, showing that in the early Church, these three offices already existed (as they do in the Catholic Church today). Then we’ll see how the Bible itself says that the church, by God’s Will, is itself hierarchical.”

“Turn with me in your well-worn Bible to 1 Timothy, where (among many other verses) a real distinction is made by St. Paul among bishops, priests and deacons; wherein he describes these three offices:

Bishops (episcopoi): “If a man desire the office of a bishop he desireth a good work.” (1 Timothy 3:1)

Priests (presbyteroi): “Let the priests that rule well be esteemed worthy of double honor: especially they who labor in the word and doctrine.” (1 Timothy 5:17)

Deacons (deakonoi): “Deacons in like manner: chaste, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre: holding the mystery of faith in a pure conscience.” (1 Timothy 3:8)

“By the fact that three distinct groups of ministers described by these three distinct terms are found within one letter by one author, we know that the author is making a true distinction between three types of ministers that existed in the early Church. And these same three types of ministers exist in the Catholic Church today, just as they have from the time when they were first established during St. Paul’s time.

“What about the idea that the Church is governed by a hierarchy, by God’s Will? Where is that in the Bible?

“Let’s check out 1 Corinthians 12:28: ‘And God indeed hath set some in the church: first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly doctors (teachers)...then the graces of healings, helps, governments...’ Notice that it says that God set these up, in the church, and included in what He set up in the Church is its government. Finally, in the last chapter of Isaiah, the prophet foretells that God ‘will take of them [the Gentiles] to be priests and Levites.’ Isaiah 66:19-21

“This shows that in the new covenant, God would take some of the Gentiles to be priests and Levites (ministers below the priests—i.e. deacons) showing a ministerial hierarchy.”

Call to Prayer

Pope Pius V - 1569

The Roman Pontiffs, and the other Holy Fathers, our predecessors, when they were pressed in upon by temporal or spiritual wars, or troubled by other trials, in order that they might more easily escape from these, and having achieved tranquility, might quietly and fervently be free to devote themselves to God, were wont to implore the divine assistance, through supplications or Litanies to call forth the support of the saints, and with David to lift up their eyes unto the Mountains, trusting with firm hope that thence would they receive aid.

1. Prompted by their example, and, as is piously believed, by the Holy Ghost, the inspired Blessed founder of the Order of Friars Preachers, (whose institutes and rule we ourselves expressly professed when we were in minor orders), in circumstances similar to those in which we now find ourselves, when parts of France and of Italy were unhappily troubled by the heresy of the Albegenses, which blinded so many of the worldly that they were raging most savagely against the priests of the Lord and the clergy, raised his eyes up unto heaven, unto that mountain of the Glorious Virgin Mary, loving Mother of God. For she by her seed has crushed the head of the twisted serpent, and has alone destroyed all heresies, and by the blessed fruit of her womb has saved a world condemned by the fall of our first parent. From her, without human hand, was that stone cut, which, struck by wood, poured forth the abundantly flowing waters of graces. And so Dominic looked to that simple way of praying and beseeching God, accessible to all and wholly pious, which is called the Rosary, or Psalter of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in which the same most Blessed Virgin is venerated by the angelic greeting repeated one hundred and fifty times, that is, according to the number of the Davidic Psalter, and by the Lord's Prayer with each decade. Interposed with these prayers are certain meditations showing forth the entire life of Our Lord Jesus Christ, thus completing the method of prayer devised by the by the Fathers of the Holy Roman Church. This same method St. Dominic propagated, and it was, spread by the Friars of Blessed Dominic, namely, of the aforementioned Order, and accepted by not a few of the people. Christ's faithful, inflamed by these prayers, began immediately to be changed into new men. The darkness of heresy began to be dispelled, and the light of the Catholic Faith to be revealed. Sodalities for this form of prayer began to be instituted in many places by the Friars of the same Order, legitimately deputed to this work by their Superiors, and confreres began to be enrolled together.

2. Following the example of our predecessors, seeing that the Church militant, which God has placed in our hands, in these our times is tossed this way and that by so many heresies, and is grievously troubled and afflicted by so many wars, and by the deprave morals of men, we also raise our eyes, weeping but full of hope, unto that same mountain, whence every aid comes forth, and we encourage and admonish each member of Christ's faithful to do likewise in the Lord.

[Pius goes on to confirm the indults, indulgences, etc., which his predecessors had granted to those who pray the Rosary, and to explicate several of these indulgences.]

Given at Rome at St. Peter's, under the Fisherman's ring, 17 September 1569, in the fourth year of our Pontificate.

Thank You!
