Defending our Faith with the Truth

By Father Dennis M. Gordon, FSSP

On the Presumption of Salvation

Question: “Hey, I know for sure that I am going to heaven, because I have accepted Christ as my Savior! Check out this verse that proves it: ‘There is now therefore no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus...’ (Romans 8:1) Why, then, is it that Catholics don’t say that they know for sure they are going to heaven—don’t you believe in the Bible?”

Answer: “My friend, of course we believe in the Good Book! We believe in all of it, including the next part of the verse that you just quoted, and other verses...

“Not everyone that saith to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

“Let’s look at the FULL verse you just quoted: ‘There is now therefore no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh.’ (Romans 8:1)

Doesn’t it seem that the second part of the verse is actually describing what it means to be ‘in Christ Jesus’? So this verse is actually saying that to be in Christ Jesus means to WALK NOT according to the flesh. To walk not according to the flesh means to avoid those works that are according to the flesh. Well, what things are those? There is another passage that talks about the works of the flesh—check it out: ‘Now the works of the flesh are manifest: which are fornication, uncleanness, immodesty, lust, idolatry, witchcrafts, enmities, contentions, emulations, wraths, quarrels, dissensions, sects, envies, murders, drunkenness, revellings and such like. (Gal-atians 5:19-21) So doesn’t it seem that if a person does all those things that are called works of the flesh, then he is walking according to the flesh?

“So if a person is walking according to the flesh, can he really say that he is ‘in Christ Jesus’, when Romans 8:1 says that to be ‘in Christ Jesus’, one has to walk NOT according to the flesh?

“I may not now be walking according to the flesh—in which case I can be assured that, if I leave this life in the same state, walking NOT according to the flesh (not doing the works of the flesh) then I AM assured of my salvation! But since I don’t know what decisions I may make tomorrow, or next year, I can’t say that I am assured of going to heaven. All I know from the Bible is that if I continue to walk NOT according to the flesh then I am in Christ Jesus, and there is no condemnation”:

but the Bible does NOT say that to have truly professed Christ as Lord at some point means that I will always be in Christ Jesus and therefore am assured of salvation. “ON THE CONTRARY, Matthew 7:21 says, ‘NOT every one that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that DOES the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven’. But if we do the will of our merciful Father; if we walk not according to the flesh; if we live our life according to the Spirit, then we can be assured of our salvation!”

Draw Refreshing Water From the Sacred Heart Pope Pius XII - 1956

121. And so, following in the footsteps of Our immediate predecessor, We are pleased to address once again to all Our dear sons in Christ those words of exhortation which Leo XIII, of immortal memory, towards the close of last century addressed to all the faithful and to all who were genuinely anxious about their own salvation and that of civil society: "Behold, today, another true sign of God's favor is presented to our gaze, namely, the Sacred Heart of Jesus. .

shining forth with a wondrous splendor from amidst flames. In it must all our hopes be placed; from it salvation is to be sought and hoped for." [121]

122. It is likewise Our most fervent desire that all who profess themselves Christians and are seriously engaged in the effort to establish the kingdom of Christ on earth will consider the practice of devotion to the Heart of Jesus as the source and symbol of unity, salvation and peace. Let no one think, however, that by such a practice anything is taken from the other forms of piety with which Christian people, under the guidance of the Church, have honored the divine Redeemer. Quite the opposite. Fervent devotional practice towards the Heart of Jesus will beyond all doubt foster and advance devotion to the Holy Cross in particular, and love for the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. We can even assert — as the revelations made by Jesus Christ to St. Gertrude and to St. Margaret Mary clearly show — that no one really ever has a proper understanding of Christ crucified to whom the inner mysteries of His Heart have not been made known. Nor will it be easy to understand the strength of the love which moved Christ to give Himself to us as our spiritual food save by fostering in a special way the devotion to the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, the purpose of which is — to use the words of Our predecessor of happy memory, Leo XIII — "to call to mind the act of supreme love whereby our Redeemer, pouring forth all the treasures of His Heart in order to remain with us till the end of time, instituted the adorable Sacrament of the Eucharist." [122]

For "not the least part of the revelation of that Heart is the Eucharist, which He gave to us out of the great charity of His own Heart." [123]

123. Finally, moved by an earnest desire to set strong bulwarks against the wicked designs of those who hate God and the Church and, at the same time, to lead men back again, in their private and public life, to a love of God and their neighbor, We do not hesitate to declare that devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is the most effective school of the love of God; the love of God, We say, which must be the foundation on which to build the kingdom of God in the hearts of individuals, families, and nations, as that same predecessor of pious memory wisely reminds us: "The reign of Jesus Christ takes its strength and form from divine love: to love with holiness and order is its foundation and its perfection. From it these must flow: to perform duties without blame; to take away nothing of another's right; to guide the lower human affairs by heavenly principles; to give the love of God precedence over all other creatures." [124]

124. In order that favors in greater abundance may flow on all Christians, nay, on the whole human race, from the devotion to the most Sacred Heart of Jesus, let the faithful see to it that to this devotion the Immaculate Heart of the Mother of God is closely joined. For, by God's Will, in carrying out the work of human Redemption the Blessed Virgin Mary was inseparably linked with Christ in such a manner that our salvation sprang from the love and the sufferings of Jesus Christ to which the love and sorrows of His Mother were intimately united. It is, then, entirely fitting that the Christian people — who received the divine life from Christ through Mary — after they have paid their debt of honor to the Sacred Heart of Jesus should also offer to the most loving Heart of their heavenly Mother the corresponding acts of piety affection, gratitude and expiation. Entirely in keeping with this most sweet and wise disposition of divine Providence is the memorable act of consecration by which We Ourselves solemnly dedicated Holy Church and the whole world to the spotless Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. [125]
