APOLOGETICS CORNER

Defending our Faith with the Truth

By Father Dennis M. Gordon, FSSP

St. Peter's Special Status

Question: "So what is the deal with St. Peter? You claim that he has a special status even among the Apostles, especially with regards to building up the Church that Jesus Christ founded... any evidence of that in the Good Book...?"

Answer: "You bet! Let's look, O my doubting friend! "Our Lord compared Himself to the prophet Jonah, when He said in Matthew 12:39, 'As Jonah was in the belly of the whale three days and three nights: so shall the Son of man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.' Then Our Lord reminded His disciples of that comparison of Himself to Jonah in Matthew 16:4; and just a few verses later

(Matthew 16:17) He said to St. Peter (whose other name was Simon), 'Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jona'. 'Bar-Jona' means 'son of Jonah'! We know from John 1:42 that St. Peter's natural father was not named Jona, but it was actually John. [Some translations may have St. Peter's natural father given in John 1:42 as 'Jona' instead of 'John,' because of what Jesus said in Matthew 16:17, but it is very clear in the Greek that his father's name was John, not Jona: John 1:42 says his natural father was Ἰωάννης (Joannes or John, which means 'grace'), not Ἰωνᾶς (Jona, which means 'dove').]

In other words, Our Lord, by calling Himself 'Jona' and then calling St. Peter 'son of Jona' is saying that St. Peter is being adopted into a special status as a special son of Jesus Himself! "Our Lord even emphasizes this one chapter later in Matthew 17:24-26 when He says to St. Peter, about paying a tax in order not to give bad example, that 'kings and their sons are free' from paying earthly tributes, speaking of Himself as a King, and speaking of St. Peter as His son. "Also, Matthew 10:2 says this: 'The names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon who is called Peter.' St. Peter is called 'the first', even though St. Andrew was the first one to follow Christ (as we see in John 1:40-41!). "Finally, Our Lord promised that He would build His Church upon St. Peter, saying, 'Thou art Peter [Peter means rock] and upon this rock I will build my Church' (Matthew 16:18). "Early Christian sources including a document from 267 A.D. against the Marcionites, attributed to Tertullian, state that the second Pope, Linus, was chosen by St. Peter himself to have the authority to govern the Church before St. Peter was martyred. St. Linus, when he was the Pope governing the Church, then made the rules for how the next Pope was to be chosen, and so the Catholic Church has had a Pope who received governing authority for the Church ever since!"

Our Lord, by calling Himself 'Jona' and then calling St. Peter 'son of Jona' is saying that St. Peter is being adopted into a special status as a special son of Jesus Himself.

Mortification - Its Necessity and Benefits

He that has offended God, though the offense may be pardoned, must either pay by expiatory works in this life or, by the pains of Purgatory in the next, make satisfaction for the temporal punishment due to sin after remission of its guilt. His sufferings in Purgatory will be infinitely greater than any torments that he could endure on earth. "They shall be in very great tribulation, unless they do penance from their deeds." (Apocalypse 2:22). They who have not expiated their sins shall suffer the sharpest torments in the other world.

St. Antoninus relates that an Angel proposed to a sick man the choice of being confined to Purgatory for three days, or of being condemned to a continuation of his infirmities for two years. The sick man chose the three days in Purgatory; but scarcely had an hour elapsed in that place of torments, then he began to complain of the Angel for having condemned him to a purgation not of three days but of several years. "Your body is still warm on the bed of death, and you speak of having spent years in Purgatory," said the Angel. If you wish to suffer in peace, imagine that you have still to live 15 or 20 years, and say: This is my purgatory, it is the spirit rather than the body that I must conquer.

Mortifications raise the soul to God. St. Francis de Sales used to say that a soul cannot ascend to the throne of God unless the flesh is mortified and depressed. There are many beautiful remarks on this subject in the works of Saint Teresa: "It would be a folly," says this great saint, "to think that God admits to His familiar friendship those who seek their own ease... Sensuality and prayer are incompatible... Souls who truly love God cannot desire repose..."

Mortifications merit great glory in heaven. If "everyone who strives for the mastery" (1 Corinthians 9:25) abstains from whatever is likely to diminish his strength, and thus endanger the conquest of a miserable earthly crown, how much more should we deny the flesh for the attainment of an eternal Kingdom? And they, indeed, says St. Paul, that they may receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible one (1 Corinthians 9: 25).

St. John saw all the Saints with palms in their hands (Apocalypse 7:9). From this passage we learn that all the Elect must be martyrs, either by the sword of the tyrant or by the voluntary crucifixion of the flesh. But while we consider the necessity of works of penance, we should at the same time remember that the pains of this life bear no proportion to the eternal glory that awaits us in Paradise.

"The sufferings of this time," says St. Paul, "are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us." (Romans 8:18). The few transitory mortifications which we practice here below will produce complete and everlasting felicity. "For", says the Apostle, "that which is at present momentary and light of our tribulation, worketh for us above measure exceedingly an eternal weight of glory." (2 Corinthians 4:17).

Let us, then, animate our faith! Our pilgrimage on earth will not be of long duration: our home is eternity, where he who has practiced the greatest mortifications during life shall enjoy the greatest glory. St. Peter says the Saints are the living stones of which the celestial Jerusalem is built. But before they are translated to the city which is above, they must be polished by the salutary chisel of penance.
