APOLOGETICS CORNER

Defending our Faith with the Truth

By Father Dennis M. Gordon, FSSP

Catholic terminology

Question: “Can you tell me what some Catholic terms mean?”

Answer: “Sure! Here’s a list of some Catholic terms we use that you may not hear in other circles, or at least these are defined as a Catholic should understand them:

“Concupiscence: A disorder in the passions in which the harmony is disturbed which had existed between the soul and the body when Adam and Eve were created; by this disorder the soul tends to be enslaved by the body (concupiscence of the flesh), by exterior goods (concupiscence of the eyes), or by an exaggerated sense of one’s own importance (pride)

“Passions: The movements of the sensible appetites (sensible inclinations).

“Prayer: A lifting up of the soul to God, by which we will in time what God wills in eternity that we should ask of Him; namely, the various means of salvation, particularly progress in charity.

“Supplication: A general prayer of petition offered to God, which does not ask for something specific: e.g.: “O God, help me!”

“Penance: A virtue by which one deplores something that one has done and assumes a moderated grief for one’s past sins, with the intention of removing them. (Summa Theologica, IIIa q. 85, a. 1) “Mortification: The spirit and practice of detachment from sensible things and from self.

“Fervor: The promptness of the will in the service of God. (E.g.: ‘Each Holy Communion should be more fervent than our previous one’ - each should be received with more promptness of the will in the service of God.’)

“Devotion: The promptness of the will in the service of God (It is the same as fervor—Summa, IIa IIae, q. 82, a. 1)

“Justification: The change whereby anyone is changed by the remission of sins from the state of ungodliness to the state of justice, that is, to the state of right order in the interior of man in so far as he is subject to God. (Summa Ia IIae, q. 113, a. 1)

“Merit: A right to a reward: something given in return for work or toil as a price for it. It is only by Divine ordination that He grants rewards for works done which proceed from the Holy Ghost in the soul in the state of grace—God crowns His own gifts, not the merits coming from our own selves.”

Doing God's Will, Your Sanctification

By St. Alphonsus Liguori

Whom can we ever find more solicitous for our welfare in our Salvation than God? To make us understand this truth, He likens Himself at one time to a Shepherd going through the desert in search of His lost sheep; at another to a mother who cannot forget her own child. "Can a woman forget her infant, so as not to have pity on the son of her womb?" (Isaiah 49:15). Again, to a hen gathering and sheltering her chickens under her wings, that they may suffer no injury: "Jerusalem, Jerusalem ... how often would I have gathered together thy children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldst not" (Matthew 23:37). In a word, according to David, God surrounds us with His goodwill in order to save us from all the assaults of our enemies. "Lord, thou hast crowned us as with a shield of thy goodwill" (Psalm 5:13). Why, then, do we not abandon ourselves entirely into the hands of this good Father? Would it not be folly in a blind man, placed in the midst of cliffs, to reject the guidance of a father who loves him, to follow the way suggested by his own caprice?

Happy the soul that permits itself to be conducted in the way in which God leads it. Father St Jure relates that a certain young man, desirous of entering the Society of Jesus, was rejected because he was blind of one eye. Who would not have said that the defect was a great misfortune to the poor young man? But that defect was the occasion of the happiest and that he could meet; for on account of it he was received into the society for the Indian mission. He went to India and had the happiness of dying for the faith. The Venerable Balthazar Alvarez used to say that "the Kingdom of heaven is the Kingdom of the lame, the tempted, and the abject." Let us, then, as if blind, permit ourselves to be guided by God along whatever road, the rough or the smooth, He may be pleased to conduct us, secure of finding in it eternal salvation. Saint Teresa used to say: "Our Lord never sends a cross without rewarding it with some favor when we accept it with resignation."

Oh, how great the peace of the soul whose will is in all things conformed to the will of God! As she wishes only what God wills, she always obtains whatsoever she desires; for all that happens in the world happens by the will of God. It is related that King Alphonsus the Great, being asked whom he esteemed happy in this life, wisely answered: "he who abandons himself entirely to the divine will of God." And, in reality, does not all our inquietude arise from this cause – that things do not happen according to our wishes, and that we resist the Divine Will? Saint Bernard says: "God justly ordains that they who refused to be sweetly ruled by Him should rule themselves amid difficulties and troubles." But, on the other hand, they who will only what God wills, always find their wishes accomplished, and therefore are always in peace, as well in prosperity as in adversity. When, then, you see a person in sadness, tell him that he is sad because he is not resigned to the will of God. The Saints... were united to the divine will. "Whatsoever shall befall the just man, it shall not make him sad" (Proverbs 12:21). Hence Cardinal Petrucci has wisely said that this frail and fleeting world is but a scene of woes. Its most pleasing amusements and pleasures have the appearance of joys, and their torments while, in following Christ suffering may appear painful but it gives true joy.

Speaking of the Saints, Salvian says: "If they are humbled, they wish their humiliation; if they are poor, they delight in their poverty: hence in every misfortune which befalls them, they are content, and therefore they begin even in this life to enjoy beatitude." Crosses will certainly be painful to the senses, but this pain is in the inferior part: in the superior part of the soul peace shall reign. The Saints, says Father Rodriguez, are like Mount Olympus: at the base there are storms of rain and thunder, but at the summit, which is raised above the middle region of the atmosphere, there is perpetual calm and sunshine. In a word, they are, like Jesus our Savior, Who, in the midst of all the sorrows and ignominies of His Passion, suffered no diminution of His peace. The more the Saints suffer, the more they rejoice in spirit, knowing that in accepting their sufferings they pleased their Lord whom alone they love. This David experienced when he said, "Thy rod and thy staff they have comforted me" (Psalm 22: 4).

The Blessed Father Avila has written: "One Blessed be to God! in adversity is of greater value than a thousand acts of thanksgiving in prosperity."
