APOLOGETICS CORNER

Defending our Faith with the Truth

By Father Dennis M. Gordon, FSSP

Suffering, Why?

Question: “Since Our Lord died for my sins, why do I have to suffer or do any penance”

Answer: “Let’s first look at the fact that it is true that God allows even those who are forgiven to suffer, then at how suffering and sacrifice show love, and then at why God does this.

“To show that it is true that God often has one suffer the consequences sins, even though forgiven, let’s take a look at an incident where we know a person was forgiven by God, by having a prophet’s word on it, and then God still had the person suffer the consequence of that sin, even though it had been forgiven.

“In 2 Kings [Samuel] 12:13-14, David repented of his sin of adultery after the prophet Nathan confronted him about it. Since David confessed the sin, Nathan told him, ‘The Lord hath taken away thy sin’: nonetheless David afterward suffered the loss of his illegitimate child because of this sin. Though David suffered this consequence for this sin, God later blessed him abundantly afterward since he had truly repented and God truly forgave him.

“How does suffering show love? Love is measured by sacrifice. Our Lord said that ‘Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends’ (John 15:13). Love also grows the more one is willing to and does suffer for another. The fact that we are willing to suffer for another person is the only sure sign that we truly love the other person, and we aren’t just loving what that other person is doing for us (which is really loving ourselves).

“So why does God do this? Hebrews 12:5-10 points out that God chastises His children to correct them, because He loves them, and not only wants to remove the sin itself by forgiving the person, but He also wants to remove the evil root, which was something in the will that moved the person to sin to begin with. It is a loving father that disciplines his children. After forgiving the sin, God removes the root of the sin often through suffering; otherwise that inclination to sin might remain in our will. We are made up of body & soul; and having used the body to sin, it is appropriate that the body share in the punishment. He does this that He might make us holy (Hebrews 12:10), and dwell within us, for God ‘will not enter into a malicious soul, nor dwell in a body subject to sins’ (Wisdom 1:4).

“It is also because Our Lord has died for you, and as a baptized Catholic, has truly united you to Him as a living member of His Body that He allows you to join Him in carrying a cross! Now don’t get me wrong: all people suffer in this life, because it is the state we have inherited from our first parents (just like a person may inherit his wealth, his eye color, or his tendency toward heart disease from his ancestors). But while all people suffer, not all people’s suffering is the same. God has made it possible for those who are united to His Body, the Church, AND who are living members in that Body by having sanctifying grace in the soul, to make their sufferings (which are part of the inherited state of every human being), to become supernaturally meritorious. If the faithful are told to ‘work out your salvation: for it is God who works in you’ (Philippians 2:12-13), then the sufferings of the faithful, like Our Lord’s sufferings, are meritorious, for it is God who is actually working through those sufferings of those in the state of grace.

“No one-page summary of this issue of suffering can fully cover the issue. If you are having an issue with suffering, I recommend the great little book, Why Must I Suffer? by Fr. Remler, from Loreto Press.

“Let’s use the voluntary sufferings to make up for our past sins in this life, so that we don’t have to make up for them in the next life. By doing this voluntarily, we will grow in love, and it will make us more capable of receiving the love of God with the eternal joy it will bring in the next life!”

God, the Joy of my Life

St. Teresa of the Andes

Those who live contemplative way of life are more deeply drawn to experience the nearness, the closeness of God. Those drawn by God to a more active imitation of the ministry of Jesus are more directly available to all God's people, as Jesus Himself was. Others drawn to God to an exclusively contemplative vocation, as was the cloistered Teresa of the Andes, make themselves totally and directly available to God as they pursue their hidden quest for divine intimacy, but are chiefly available to the needs of God's people through their life of prayer and reparation.

All saints have one thing in common, the fact that they are striving to live for God alone, the compelling concern to make God the deepest and most profound center of their personal life. Saint Paul is a splendid example of what it means to live for God alone. After he met the Risen Lord on the way to Damascus and was subsequently baptized, his whole life was radically changed. Christ had taken possession of him and he could in all truth say to the Galatians: "I live no longer I, but Christ lives in me." Paul knows too that despite his weakness, he can do all things because of his union with the Risen Lord.

God's love for every person is unique, and it is not surprising that each person has a very special and a personal relationship with God. While He is the God of all, He is the God of each in a very special way. No individual person can understand all the attributes of perfections of God, but we find individual saints especially drawn toward a particular divine attribute and take their delight in a specific divine perfection manifested in the life of Christ. Thus we see Saint Francis and his compelling love for the poor Christ of the Gospel; he loved to contemplate the poverty of Christ who became needy so we can be filled with the richness of God. Saint Dominic, on the other hand, feels driven to bring the wisdom of God to those in ignorance about God and His Holiness. St Therese of the Child Jesus felt especially drawn to the Divine Mercy and experienced that despite her little littleness God stooped down to raise her up to His divine heights. The little Chilean Carmelite, Teresa of the Andes, felt irresistibly drawn to the mystery of the joy of God's presence. She longs that Christ's words will be fulfilled in each one that we may have His joy and that no one will take this joy from us. She would also like us to go out and share our divine joy with others.

Spiritual joy is one of the most precious gifts of the Holy Ghost and its fullness is an unmistakable sign of holiness. Joy indicates very intense pleasure as well as a sense of exceptional good fortune. True spiritual joy emanates from the presence of God in our life, and especially from our awareness of His loving and abiding presence. In the New Testament we see that tidings of great joy filled the world when it was announced that God the Savior was born. Under the guidance of the Holy Ghost, men and women in Luke's Gospel are filled with joy at His appearance and are unshakably assured that the Savior will be with His people forever.

Because spiritual joy does not depend on our emotions or on material well-being, it cannot be lost as long as God is present and as long as we believe in His presence and love. In fact, as we can see in the lives of the martyrs, not even suffering, hardship or sickness deprived them of the joy of God's presence. When God is the loving guest of a soul, nothing can interfere with the joy He brings.

The feelings and emotions directly opposed to joy are sadness and despondency. Sadness is the great enemy of spiritual joy. When we are aware of the presence of God in our lives, we are eager to serve Him fervently, practice the virtues and spread goodness everywhere. When we are spiritually sad, we feel and act in just the opposite way. Our souls are troubled and disheartened, unable to find inner peace; we avoid prayer and our good resolutions are weakened and diminished. Deprived of the delight of the nearness and closeness of God in our lives, we feel helpless and disinclined to do good. With wisdom that is both human and divine, Saint James writes : "If anyone among you is sad, let him pray" (James 5:13), thus reminding those who are suffering sadness because of hardship or tribulation that if they pray, their hearts will be strengthened and awareness of the goodness and presence of God will lift their spirits and fill them with confidence.
