APOLOGETICS CORNER

Defending our Faith with the Truth

By Father Dennis M. Gordon, FSSP

Mary and the birth of Our Lord

Question: “Hey, I have a question: I came across where your Church says in its Catechism that the Blessed Virgin Mary gave birth to Jesus “without experiencing... any sense of pain” (Catechism of the Council of Trent, 50); and that one of your Popes, Pope Pius XII, reiterated that, saying that She “gave miraculous birth to Christ Our Lord” (Mystici Corporis).

“You Catholics don’t really believe that the Blessed Virgin Mary gave painless birth to

Our Lord, do you?”

Answer:

“Sure we do! And it’s not just our own idea—did you know that it is in the Bible?

“Why don’t we turn to the Good Book?! Let’s see the prophecy of Our Lord’s Birth found in Isaiah 66:7-8—“Before she was in labor she brought forth: before her time came to be delivered she brought forth a man child. Who hath ever heard such a thing?” The birth of this man child foreshadows the Birth of Our Lord, according to even the early Christians! And this passage says that it will happen before the child’s Mother is in labor.”

“But what about Revelations (Apocalypse) 12:2: being with child, she cried travailing in birth: and was in pain to be delivered?”

“Ah, yes! Notice the time reference for this passage given in the very next verse, for when this pain-filled birth takes place, to determine which event this refers to: the next line (Rev. 12:3) says the dragon with seven heads and ten horns awaited the birth. But this dragon with the seven heads and ten horns is explained a little later in Revelations 17:12: “The ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but shall receive power as kings one hour after the beast.” ‘Not yet received a kingdom... they shall receive power...’ In other words, the entire vision that includes the beast with ten horns awaiting the birth of the woman’s child is about something that had not yet happened when Revelations was written!

“Revelations 12:2 is about something after the physical Birth of Our Lord, and even after the writing of the Book of Revelations—it is about the Church, after the time of the vision of the Book of Revelations (a vision which took place in about 90 A.D.). The Church is the woman that does indeed travail in ‘birth’ (bringing Christ into the world), and is ‘in pain to be delivered’ as the Church suffers in bringing Christ to the world. The woman in pain to give birth in Revelations 12:2 has to be referring to something other than the physical Birth of Our Lord, because the dragon waiting for the birth in the vision to happen is the one with the ten horns; which the Bible says are ten kings that have not yet come to power, and at the time of this vision, Our Lady had already given Birth to Our Lord.

“The only passage, then, that does refer to the manner of Our Lady’s giving Birth to Our Lord at a moment in history is Isaiah 66:7-8, which states that she delivered before she was in labor!”

Doing God's Will, Your Sanctification

By St. Alphonsus Liguori

Whom can we ever find more solicitous for our welfare in our Salvation than God? To make us understand this truth, He likens Himself at one time to a Shepherd going through the desert in search of His lost sheep; at another to a mother who cannot forget her own child. "Can a woman forget her infant, so as not to have pity on the son of her womb?" (Isaiah 49:15). Again, to a hen gathering and sheltering her chickens under her wings, that they may suffer no injury: "Jerusalem, Jerusalem ... how often would I have gathered together thy children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldst not" (Matthew 23:37). In a word, according to David, God surrounds us with His goodwill in order to save us from all the assaults of our enemies. "Lord, thou hast crowned us as with a shield of thy goodwill" (Psalm 5:13). Why, then, do we not abandon ourselves entirely into the hands of this good Father? Would it not be folly in a blind man, placed in the midst of cliffs, to reject the guidance of a father who loves him, to follow the way suggested by his own caprice?

Happy the soul that permits itself to be conducted in the way in which God leads it. Father St Jure relates that a certain young man, desirous of entering the Society of Jesus, was rejected because he was blind of one eye. Who would not have said that the defect was a great misfortune to the poor young man? But that defect was the occasion of the happiest and that he could meet; for on account of it he was received into the society for the Indian mission. He went to India and had the happiness of dying for the faith. The Venerable Balthazar Alvarez used to say that "the Kingdom of heaven is the Kingdom of the lame, the tempted, and the abject." Let us, then, as if blind, permit ourselves to be guided by God along whatever road, the rough or the smooth, He may be pleased to conduct us, secure of finding in it eternal salvation. Saint Teresa used to say: "Our Lord never sends a cross without rewarding it with some favor when we accept it with resignation."

Oh, how great the peace of the soul whose will is in all things conformed to the will of God! As she wishes only what God wills, she always obtains whatsoever she desires; for all that happens in the world happens by the will of God. It is related that King Alphonsus the Great, being asked whom he esteemed happy in this life, wisely answered: "he who abandons himself entirely to the divine will of God." And, in reality, does not all our inquietude arise from this cause – that things do not happen according to our wishes, and that we resist the Divine Will? Saint Bernard says: "God justly ordains that they who refused to be sweetly ruled by Him should rule themselves amid difficulties and troubles." But, on the other hand, they who will only what God wills, always find their wishes accomplished, and therefore are always in peace, as well in prosperity as in adversity. When, then, you see a person in sadness, tell him that he is sad because he is not resigned to the will of God. The Saints... were united to the divine will. "Whatsoever shall befall the just man, it shall not make him sad" (Proverbs 12:21). Hence Cardinal Petrucci has wisely said that this frail and fleeting world is but a scene of woes. Its most pleasing amusements and pleasures have the appearance of joys, and their torments while, in following Christ suffering may appear painful but it gives true joy.

Speaking of the Saints, Salvian says: "If they are humbled, they wish their humiliation; if they are poor, they delight in their poverty: hence in every misfortune which befalls them, they are content, and therefore they begin even in this life to enjoy beatitude." Crosses will certainly be painful to the senses, but this pain is in the inferior part: in the superior part of the soul peace shall reign. The Saints, says Father Rodriguez, are like Mount Olympus: at the base there are storms of rain and thunder, but at the summit, which is raised above the middle region of the atmosphere, there is perpetual calm and sunshine. In a word, they are, like Jesus our Savior, Who, in the midst of all the sorrows and ignominies of His Passion, suffered no diminution of His peace. The more the Saints suffer, the more they rejoice in spirit, knowing that in accepting their sufferings they pleased their Lord whom alone they love. This David experienced when he said, "Thy rod and thy staff they have comforted me" (Psalm 22: 4).

The Blessed Father Avila has written: "One Blessed be to God! in adversity is of greater value than a thousand acts of thanksgiving in prosperity."
