Mass Ordinaries Mass XVII, Credo I

Marian Antiphon Alma Redemptoris Mater

Notes from Fr. Rapoport:

Mass intentions are open: our Mass intention system has been revised. Specific priests are not available. Each family may submit a request for 3 Masses. Make checks out to St. Joan of Arc. Please submit your Mass intentions to the office, the black box at the back of church, or by mail. Mass intentions will no longer be printed in the bulletin but rather posted after they have been celebrated. (Fr. Terra is not taking Mass intentions at this time).

Idaho Catholic Appeal: I would to make a big push to raise as much as possible for our goal for the diocesan appeal! So far we are in last place for participation throughout the diocese. Our goal is $109,691 and we have only raised $17,960. The balance of the total will be paid to the diocese by St. Joan's if the goal is not raised! The deadline for giving to ICA is December 31. The appeal helps fund over 20 ministries funded by the diocese including vocations and priest retirement. Envelopes are in the rack at the back of church. Children's Procession for Midnight Mass: Children of the parish are invited to walk in procession with the priest and clergy before Midnight Mass on Christmas. ## 2nd Nocturn

From the Sermons of Pope St. Leo the Great

Reading 4

Dearly beloved brethren, Unto us is born this day a Saviour, Luke 2:11. Let us rejoice. It would be unlawful to be sad today, for today is Life's Birthday; the Birthday of that Life, Which, for us dying creatures, taketh away the sting of death, and bringeth the bright promise of the eternal gladness hereafter. It would be unlawful for any man to refuse to partake in our rejoicing. All men have an equal share in the great cause of our joy, for, since our Lord, Who is the destroyer of sin and of death, findeth that all are bound under the condemnation, He is come to make all free. Rejoice, O thou that art holy, thou drawest nearer to thy crown! Rejoice, O thou that art sinful, thy Saviour offereth thee pardon! Rejoice also, O thou Gentile, God calleth thee to life! For the Son of God, when the fulness of the time was come, which had been fixed by the unsearchable counsel of God, took upon Him the nature of man, that He might reconcile that nature to Him Who made it, and so the devil, the inventor of death, is met and beaten in that very flesh which hath been the field of his victory.

Reading 5

When our Lord entered the field of battle against the devil, He did so with a great and wonderful fairness. Being Himself the Almighty, He laid aside His uncreated Majesty to fight with our cruel enemy in our weak flesh. He brought against him the very shape, the very nature of our mortality, yet without sin. Heb. 4:15. His birth however was not a birth like other births for no other is born pure, nay, not the little child whose life endureth but a day on the earth. To His birth alone the throes of human passion had not contributed, in His alone no consequence of sin had had part. For His Mother was chosen a Virgin of the kingly lineage of David, and when she was to grow heavy with the sacred Child, her soul had already conceived Him before her body. She knew the counsel of God announced to her by the Angel, lest the unwonted events should alarm her. The future Mother of God knew what was to be wrought in her by the Holy Ghost, and that her modesty was absolutely safe.

Reading 6

Therefore, dearly beloved brethren, let us give thanks to God the Father, through His Son, in the Holy Ghost: Who, for His great love wherewith He loved us, hath had mercy on us and, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, Eph. 2:4-5, that in Him we might be a new creature, and a new workmanship. Let us then put off the old man with his deeds Col. 3:9; and, having obtained a share in the Sonship of Christ, let us renounce the deeds of the flesh. Learn, O Christian, how great thou art, who hast been made partaker of the Divine nature, 2 Pet. 1:4, and fall not again by corrupt conversation into the beggarly elements above which thou art lifted. Remember Whose Body it is Whereof thou art made a member, and Who is its Head, 1 Cor. 6:15 Remember that it is He That hath delivered thee from the power of darkness and hath translated thee into God's light, and God's kingdom, Col. 1:13.

V. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

R. Thanks be to God.

R. O Mary, how holy and how spotless is thy virginity! I am too dull to praise thee!

\ For thou hast borne in thy breast Him Whom the heavens cannot contain.*

V. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

3rd Nocturn

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke (Lk 2:1-14)

At that time, it came to pass that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that the whole world should be enrolled... Etc.

Homily by Pope St. Gregory the Great.

Reading 7

By God's mercy we are to say three Masses today, so that there is not much time left for preaching; but at the same time the occasion of the Lord's Birthday itself obliges me to speak a few words. I will first ask why, when the Lord was to be born, the world was enrolled? Was it not to herald the appearing of Him by Whom the elect are enrolled in the book of life? Whereas the Prophet saith of the reprobate: Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be

Homily by St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan.

Book 2. on Luke 2.

Behold the beginning of the Church. Christ is born, and the shepherds' watch; shepherds, to gather together the scattered sheep of the Gentiles, and to lead them into the fold of Christ, that they might no longer be a prey to the ravages of spiritual wolves in the night of this world's darkness. And that shepherd is wide awake, whom the Good Shepherd stirreth up. The flock then is the people, the night is the world, and the shepherds are the Priests. And perhaps he is a written with the righteous. Ps. 68:29. Then, the Lord is born in Bethlehem. Now the name Bethlehem is translated the House of Bread, and thus it is the birth-place of Him Who hath said: I am the Living Bread, Which came down from heaven. John 6:51. We see then that this name of Bethlehem was prophetically given to the place where Christ was born, because it was there that He was to appear in the flesh by Whom the souls of the faithful are fed unto life eternal. He was born, not in His Mother's house, but away from home. And this is a mystery, showing that this our mortality into which He was born was not the home of Him Who is begotten of the Father before the worlds.

shepherd to whom it is said: Be watchful and strengthen, Apoc. 3:2, for God hath ordained as the shepherds of His flock not Bishops only, but also Angels.

V. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

R. Thanks be to God.

R. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.

\ And we beheld His glory, the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.*

V. All things were made by Him, and without Him was not anything made.+
